Will you come and follow me

There is a great need to encourage more people to follow in our footsteps to travel to Lourdes and work as part of the Hospitalité.

This is not a new problem we have been talking for many years about how we can encourage new people, especially younger, people to follow our example and volunteer to work for the Hospitalité.

We produced leaflets and posters under the heading of "Will you come and follow me" and these are still available if members want copies to recruit new labourers for the vineyard. We intend to spend some time looking at this again during this year's reunion and to give our younger members the opportunity to share their views with us.

You might want to give this some thought before the reunion and come with some ideas.

If you get the chance look at this website: <https://hndl1885.wordpress.com>

Paying your Hospitalité Cotisation through the British Hospitalité Trust

As members of the Hospitalité we are required to pay an annual Cotisation (membership subscription). Everyone, except those who through age have retired from actively working, are required to pay this annual subscription to continue as members. The most important thing to remember about paying your Cotisation is that it ensures you are insured while carrying out your duties with the Hospitalité. If you are in doubt about whether your subscription is up to date we recommend that you arrange to pay through the British Hospitalité Trust (BHT).

The BHT assists the work of the Hospitalité (HNDL) by collecting the annual cotisations (subscriptions) of British members. As a registered UK charity the Trust is able to reclaim any UK tax that has been paid on these subscriptions. The tax reclaimed under the Gift Aid Scheme is then used to support the work of the Hospitalité. If you are not already paying your subscriptions through the Trust you can get full details including a standing order form and Gift Aid declaration form from the BHT web-site, www.britishhospitalitetrust.co.uk.
